

The diagram shows a top-down view of a car's engine bay. A long, thin hose runs diagonally across the frame. A paper clip is used to secure the hose to a metal component. The text 'Paper clip' is written above the clip. The engine block and various other components are visible in the background.

Paper clip

AC207453AB