

insider info. Winter Edition

Frozen Wiper Blades

Many areas of the country are now experiencing extreme weather conditions (ice/snow/freezing temperatures). Make certain the wiper blades are not frozen to the windshield and that the cowl area has been cleared of all snow and ice before turning the wipers on. Turning the wipers on before the wiper blades have been freed could result in stripping out the splines on the wiper shafts.

